

A photograph of a red Citroën 2CV car parked on a street at dusk. The car is in the foreground, angled slightly towards the left. It has a black roof rack and a license plate that reads 'YD26 272'. In the background, there is a large, multi-story brick building with several large arched windows. Some of the windows are illuminated from within, and a street lamp is visible. The sky is a pale blue-grey, suggesting twilight. The overall mood is nostalgic and urban.
